

ARCADIA ROOTS

Arcadia Roots are Worcestershire based band who's music is best described as Psychedelic Reggae and Voodoo Blues (a combination of reggae, trance-blues and rock).

The band have shared the Glastonbury Festival Pilton-Party stage with Bastille and Declan McKenna, headlined the BBC stage at Lakefest alongside Aswad, Alabama 3 and The Charlatans, supported The Lightning Seeds at Tenbury 2018. Other 2018 festivals included main stage at Lakefest sharing the stage with the likes of The Darkness, The Green gathering, BOSfest and One Love 2018.

The jewel in the crown for 2018 Arcadia Roots was being invited to perform in front of an international audience at the John Bonham Memorial celebration in September 2018 where their dub version of Whole Lotta Love won over the die hard Zep fans.

The band currently have two EP's released and are releasing singles on the run up to their debut full album due for release in September 2019.

Current festivals booked for this year include Nostock, Jurassic Fields, The Green Gathering, Wychwood Festival (invited by BBC), Minety Festival and others as well as continuing to perform at venues throughout the UK and a Germany tour planned for October.

CURRENT TOUR GUIDE

